Justice Dept. To Ask Delay On Reapportionment Cases

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Justice Department will ask the Dauphin County Court to put off action on three suits challenging Pennsylvania legislative apportionment until the 1963 General Assembly acts.

A department source, who declined direct quotation, said the Justice Department would file its petition with the Commonwealth Court in a few days.

Its position will be in answer to three suits challenging the present makeup of the state House and Senate.

Mt. Pocono Man Seeks Job Back

HOWELL T. Whiting of Mt. Pocono will argue for reinstatement in his job at Tobyhanna Signal Corps Depot at 1 p.m. today before the depot's grievance committee.

He will be represented at the meeting by his attorney, Edwin Kravitz of Stroudsburg.

Whiting was suspended from his job in February, 1961, when he and four other depot employees were indicted in Federal Court on charges of conspiracy and theft.

On March 21 of this year, a Federal Court jury in Scranton found Whiting innocent of the charges.

News In Brief

Missile Explodes At Launching

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An Atlas intercontinental range missile exploded into a raging fireball on its launching pad Monday, sending flames and a mushroom cloud of smoke soaring hundreds of feet above Cape Canaveral.

The 82-foot missile ignited as the countdown reached zero, then suddenly was ripped by tons of exploding fuel.

Flaming pieces of the shattered rocket sprayed a wide area, but members of the launching crew were protected in a concrete-reinforced blockhouse 250 yards away.

The Atlas, an advanced F Series model, was intended to fly a 5,000-mile course.

UN Censures Israeli Attack

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—By a vote of 10-0 the U.N. Security Council Monday censured Israel for a night attack last month on a Syrian outpost overlooking the Sea of Galilee.

Only France abstained as the 11-nation council approved a resolution submitted by the United States and Britain reaffirming a six-year-old directive condemning Israel for resorting to military retaliation against her Arab neighbors.

Armand Berard, the French delegate, said the U. S.-British resolution failed to establish that both sides shared responsibilities for a series of border clashes that flared on March 8.

Army Men Killed In S. Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Two U.S. Army enlisted men who died in a Communist Viet Cong ambush were killed by spears or gunfire, a U.S. military spokesman said Monday.

The bodies, bearing gunshot and spear wounds, were found after the guerrillas fled from the scene of the attack Sunday near an U.S. helicopter base near An Chau, 360 miles north of Saigon. Two other American soldiers are missing and presumed captured.

The administration source said the state's position will be similar to one it took in another case challenging reapportionment in 1959.

At that time, the state admitted the facts in the challenge, but held that the court did not have authority to act.

Subsequently, the state Supreme Court upheld the commonwealth position.

The first suit filed with the Dauphin County Court was brought by the Philadelphia Committee of 70. It asks that the city's eight state senators be elected on an at-large basis until the city's districts have been reapportioned.

That suit contends that failure to redistrict has resulted in such inequities as the city's 3rd Senatorial District having a population of slightly more than 51,000, while the

Court Order Averts N. Y. School Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A court order late Monday forbade a threatened strike of New York City public school teachers. At the same time, the state offered a $2 million advance of funds to ease their wage crisis.

Acting State Supreme Court Justice James A. Roe Jr. issued a temporary restraining order against a strike scheduled for Tuesday's school opening by the United Federation of Teachers. There was no immediate indication from the union whether it will heed the order, or go ahead with the walkout and risk contempt action.

The court action was brought by Harold L. Friedman, father of two children who attend a public school in Flushing, Queens. It had no connection with a state law prohibiting strikes by public employees.

Hearing Today

Justice Roe ordered a hearing on the matter Tuesday.

The UFT had scheduled the first all-out strike in the history of the New York public schools in a demand for increased teachers' wages.

Picketing teachers were urged to equip themselves with transistor radios so they could keep abreast of developments.

The federation is demanding wage increases totaling $33 million a year for the city's 40,000 teachers. The Board of Education's best offer has been $27 million—and it says it doesn't know where that much money is coming from.

Lenten Meditation

By Rev. Wiley S. Young
Bleakleyville Baptist Church

TEXT: Galatians 6:14 — "But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of Our Lord Jesus Christ, by Whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world."

We are living in a time of political and spiritual chaos and the one sure anchor for our faith in mankind, in ourselves, and in our Creator is to be found in the Cross and the Great Emancipator, Jesus Christ, who hung upon it. Similar chaotic times existed before in the days of Jesus, A.D. 33.

We soliloquize, as in our minds we see the Master making His way to the garden of Gethsemane in the company of three of His followers, Peter, James and John. He asked that they tarry while He went a little farther into the garden to pray.

He interrupted that prayer three times to return to His disciples and in each case found them fast asleep. His own disappointment was expressed in the words, "What, could ye not watch with Me one hour?"

The prayer of our Lord, "O My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless not as I will but as Thou wilt," was the beginning of those terrible days that led to Calvary. The "cup" was the symbol He used in speaking of His sacrificial death on Golgotha's hill.

Then followed in rapid succession His betrayal and arrest, the trial before Caiaphas and the Sanhedrin, Pilate's judgement hall, Herod's court, back to Pilate where Barabbas was released and Christ condemned to be crucified, the crown of thorns piercing His brow and last up Calvary Hill He went bearing His cross until relieved by Simon.

All this trial and His sacrificial death was for the remission of the sins of the world. All anyone need do to experience His stabilizing power in this time of chaos is to take the admonition of Paul to the Philippian Jailor, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."

Geneva Conference Flares Up Over N-Tests Ban, Propaganda Reports

U. S. To Start Tests Unless Ban Effected

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan have agreed on a public statement justifying anew U.S. resumption of nuclear tests in the air, informed sources said Monday night.

It is anticipated that the joint declaration will be issued Tuesday and will offer Soviet Premier Khrushchev a last chance to halt the tests by reversing his stand against a cheat-proof nuclear test-ban treaty.

Officials here saw virtually no hope that Khrushchev would alter his position but felt the statement would impress the world anew that the West is sincerely anxious to avoid the new tests, if it could be done on a basis compatible with national security.

Scheduled To Start

The tests are scheduled to start late this month and will be carried out in two mid-Pacific test areas.

The assistant White House press secretary, Andrew Hatcher, said "reports originating in London to the effect that such a message is under consideration and being weighed by Prime Minister Macmillan and President Kennedy are true."

The London reports spoke of a Kennedy-Macmillan appeal to Khrushchev to help stave off resumption of atmospheric tests.

Washington sources said, however, that the Western statement would not be a message sent personally to Khrushchev but would outline in detail the reasons for going ahead with the weapons tests.

Seek Test Ban

Kennedy and Macmillan have taken the position that, in view of the Soviet breaking of the nuclear test moratorium last fall, the West must resume atmospheric shots too, unless the Reds agree to an effective test ban.

Prospects that the U.S. would go ahead with its planned explosions in the Pacific starting the latter part of April grew more positive Monday as the East-West deadlock over an atomic test accord remained unshaken at the Geneva disarmament conference.

The top U.S. negotiator at Geneva, Arthur H. Dean, firmly told the Soviets that the American tests would be held unless the Russians sign a cheat-proof test-ban treaty.

Soviets Adherent

The Soviet delegate, Semyon K. Tsarapkin, refused to budge. He restated the long-standing Soviet objection that the international controls the West says are necessary to catch violations are an attempt to introduce spies into the Soviet Union.

Even the Soviet delegate, Tsarapkin, said there was no hope the Americans would not resume atmospheric tests. The Russians have said that if the Americans resumed their testing, the Soviets would go ahead with a new series.

Shipwrecked Adventurers Report On Cuban Incident

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Seven American treasure hunters, shipwrecked near Cuba, came home Monday to tell of high adventure as prisoners of Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

"We were shipwrecked sailors and our treatment was fair," said a spokesman for the group, Fred Dickson Jr., 33, formerly of Ocean City, N.J. "I would say it was good."

The treasure hunters said they were arrested by Cuban troops as soon as they reached shore in Cuba's easternmost province. But after they convinced the captors they were bona fide mariners in distress, the Cubans went all out to provide for their comfort.

The men were shipwrecked last Thursday when their boat, Pisces, ran aground on rocks about 400 yards from a beach near Baracoa, Dickson said.

"We had endured three days of pretty bad weather and very little visibility," Dickson said. "We couldn't use our stoves because of the wind and rolling ship, and we subsisted on cold food."

"Because of various factors, we ran aground about 45 minutes from Baracoa," He would not elaborate.

The Americans with Dickson were Gordon S. Patton, 62, of Ocean City, Md., leader of the party; Bernie Nistad, Brooklyn,

Algerian Terrorism Abates; DeGaulle's Popularity Gains

ALGIERS (AP)—Secret army agents slew nine Moslems in the Algiers area Monday. But the terrorist campaign against Algerian independence seemed to ebb somewhat.

The city's terrorist toll dropped to less than half the record figures of the past three days, when the secret army had stepped up its campaign of slaughter to protect the French referendum on Algeria's future.

Mixed Reactions

European settlers regarded the French people's sweeping approval of Sunday of President Charles de Gaulle's self-determination policy for Algeria with a mixture of resentment and indifference. Most of them still would like to keep Algeria French at any cost.

One secret army source said, "Our fight goes on."

But he admitted that the capture of ex-Lt. Roger Degueudre, a Belgian-born former Nazi officer alleged to have directed terrorist activities in the Algiers area, was a heavy blow to the organization.

Degueudre, a deserter from the French Foreign Legion, was arrested in Algiers Saturday and flown to Paris for trial.

French authorities in the western Algerian city of Oran suspended its two daily newspapers because of pirate editions run off by the secret army in the newspaper shops.

While printers worked at gunpoint, the back pages were turned into a sort of poster protesting the referendum in France. Secret army groups of about 40 men each had brought along their own makeups. Police sought to determine whether there was complicity on the part of the employees.

The governor ordered the Echo d'Oran and Oran Republican suspended until further notice.

De Gaulle Ponders

In Paris, De Gaulle studied the details of the 90 per cent endorsement he got in the Algerian peace referendum and pondered the advantages of calling a new parliamentary election or reshuffling the Cabinet.

Several leaders of the Gaullist Union for a new Republic have been strongly urging dissolution of the National Assembly and quick elections. Among them is Premier Michel Debre.

Leighton Man Pleads Innocent

ALLEN Anthony, 19, Leighton, RD 1, yesterday pleaded innocent to a charge of involuntary manslaughter at a hearing before Mrs. Melba Kobal, Mahoning Township justice of the peace, and was released in $1,500 bail pending court action.

Anthony was arrested by State Police at Leighton and charged with the death of Neil D. Kreitz, Acquascola, in a two-car crash on Route 29 between Parryville and Leighton on March 18.

Anthony was taken into custody as he was discharged from Gnaeden-Heuten Hospital in Leighton. His 18-year-old wife, an expectant mother, also died in the crash.

100 MPH Area Driver Pays $15

JOSEPH A. Gimbor, 37, of 212 North St., Jim Thorpe, was fined $10 and $5 costs on a charge of driving 100 miles an hour at a hearing yesterday before James Ziegenfuss, Leighton, RD 3, justice of the peace.

Gimbor was arrested at 6:05 p.m. Sunday by Trooper Joseph Yanall of the Leighton State Police barracks who said the man was speeding on Route 903, six miles north of Jim Thorpe.

Gimbor was driving a car with New Jersey license plates, troopers said, but an investigation showed that he works in New Jersey, although he lives in Pennsylvania.

Members Urged To Report Accurately On World Events

GENEVA (AP)—The United States challenged the Soviet Union Monday to agree that governments should restrain their language on international issues and inform their own people accurately about world problems.

The U.S. delegate then proposed works as those of Marx, Lenin and Stalin which preach that war is inevitable. The theme has been the center of controversy between the Soviet Union and its Chinese Communist allies, who continue to insist on the purity of that aspect of Leninist doctrine.

Balance Has Changed

The current Soviet claim is that the balance of forces in the world has changed, that cataclysmic war no longer is inevitable because Soviet might can prevent others from contemplating armed conflict.

Dean challenged the Russians to agree to an eight-point proposal to eliminate war propaganda.

The points would require both sides to reaffirm support of U.N. resolutions on that subject, agree that ignorance contributes to the danger of war, declare opposition to the inevitability theory, recognize that lack of East-West exchanges contributes to ignorance, accept the duty of providing accurate information to populations, exercise restraint in statements on international issues, seek improvement of exchanges of views and information between peoples and include these principles in a conference report to the United Nations.

Truck Skids Into Rear Of School Bus

A dump truck skidded into the rear of a school bus yesterday at 3:30 p.m. five miles north of East Stroudsburg on Route 209. There were 37 pupils aboard the bus at the time of collision but no injuries were reported.

State Police from Stroudsburg barracks identified the drivers as Milton Angle, 52, East Stroudsburg, RD 2, operator of the dump truck, and Laura Mae Miller, 41, East Stroudsburg, RD 2, driver of the school bus.

Mrs. Miller told State Police that she had stopped the bus to discharge some pupils as she was driving west on Route 209.

Angle, also traveling west, saw the bus stop and applied the brakes of the truck but slid on the rain-soaked highway and crashed into the rear of the bus, police said.

The bus was loaded with school children, ranging in ages from six to 12 years old, from Smithfield School.

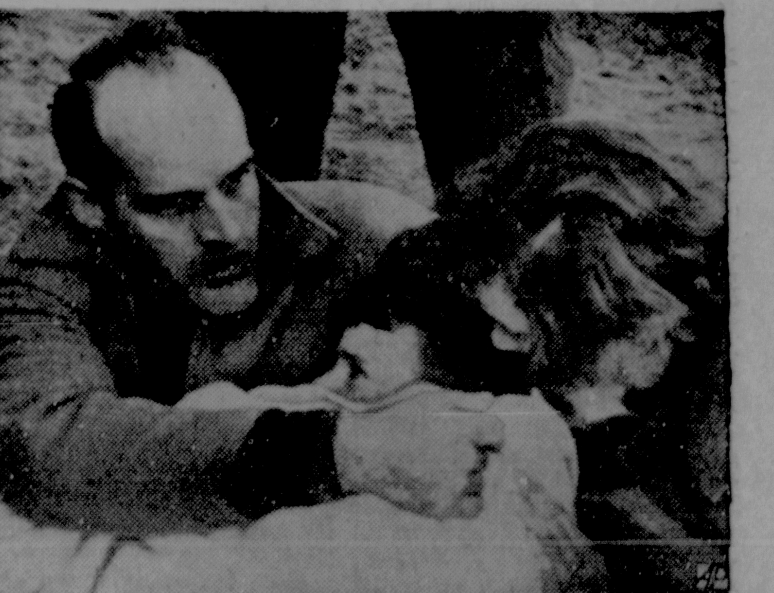

State Police Probe Theft

STATE POLICE at Leighton are investigating a burglary and a larceny in Monroe County, they reported yesterday.

A 24-inch Marsh circular saw, belt-driven, valued at $35 was taken from a garage at the Summer home of Mrs. Ada Caroline Henry, Kunkletown RD 2, Polk Township, on or about March 26 or 27. Mrs. Henry lives at 247 Hillside Ave., Leonia, N.J.

The larceny was reported by Henry Balmors Jr., 162 Sweet Fern Rd., Stroudsburg, a foreman for the Asplundh Tree Expert Co., 305 Park Rd., Jenkintown.

He told troopers his men were working on Legislative Rt. 560 in Eldred Township, three miles south of Kresgeville, when a "Men Working in Trees" sign was stolen.

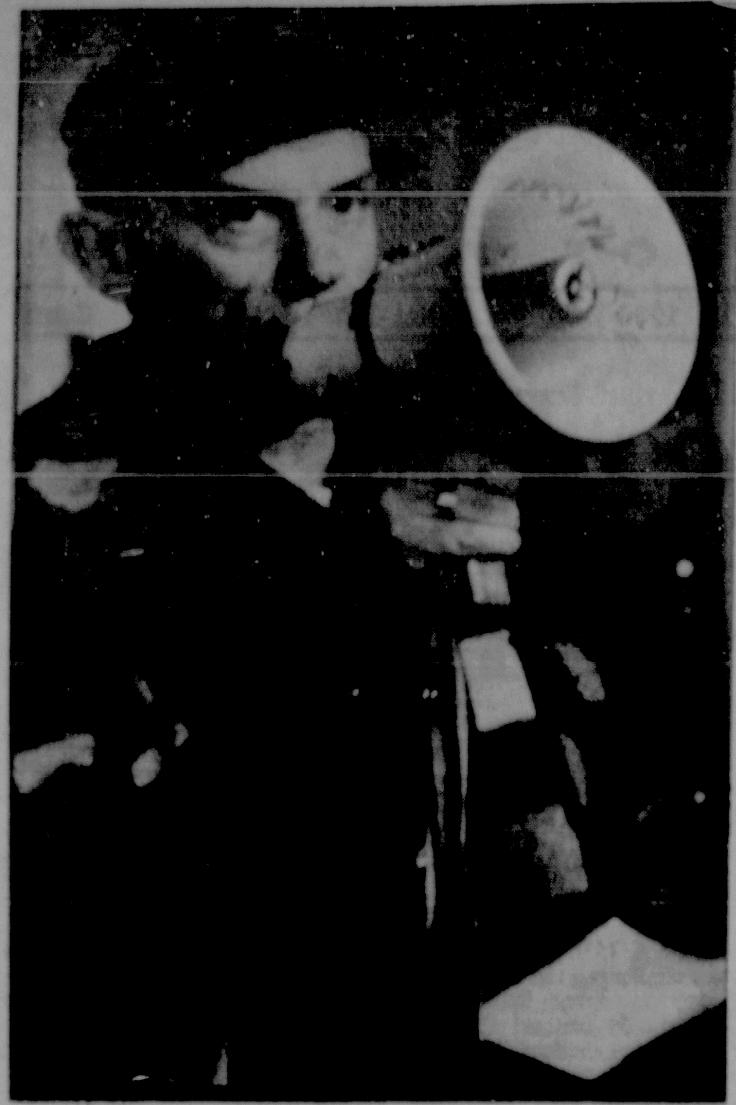

MISSING CHILD FOUND—Philip Stewart, hollowed from a night of frantic searching, cuddles his only child, James, seven, as his wife soothes the youngster moments after he was found at Ipswich, Mass., after a night lost in swamps and woodlands. James and a companion, Peter Mourikas, eight, were found unharmed after they were spotted by a Coast Guard helicopter crew aiding ground searchers.

Community Chest Starts New Search For Leaders

THE directors of the Community Chest, implemented by past presidents and past campaign chairmen, last night walked right up to the proposition that the 12 member agencies each conduct their own campaigns next year — and then backed away to try to make a fresh start in clearing the first hurdle.

Leaders interested enough in the community and the Community Chest to be willing to serve as president, first and second vice president and campaign chairman.

Maxwell Cohen, acting president, presided at the meeting at the Penn-Stroud Hotel and named as a new nominating committee: Jesse Flory, chairman; Albert Groner, M.S. Baldwin, Jesse Pierson, Walter Wyckoff, J.L. Cohen and Mrs. Claude Leister. They will meet on Friday April 13 to map out a program.

Although the 1961-62 campaign fell short of its goal, forcing for the first time in its 18-year history a cut in allocations to member agencies, the primary problem, Cohen said, was not money but personnel: as leaders, on the board, and in the field.

Consultants Called Called in as consultants at the meeting were Frank S. LaBar, a charter member, first campaign chairman and an early president of the chest; Al Groner, Marty Baldwin, and Jesse Flory, all past presidents, J.L. Cohen and Rev. John Bollier.

Growing apathy toward the Community Chest was a problem raised by Holt Wyckoff, who pointed out that three more industries willing to go along on a payroll deduction plan could have put the campaign over the top.

Jesse Pierson, speaking of experiences in other communities, cited the need of the help and full support of the big employers as well as the rank and file.

Baldwin pointed out some of the problems inherent in payroll deduction with the multiplicity of other independent campaigns. LaBar called attention to the fact that some 25 separate campaigns had been held in the community this past year, as well as to the ever increasing funds asked for by the member agencies.

Groner called attention to the inside campaigns run by member agencies which adds to the multiplicity of appeals and a growing resistance to giving.

Sums Up Rev. John Bollier summed up the discussion pointing to the obvious reluctance to dissolve the Chest and the general agreement of its usefulness in the community and endorsed the expanded nominating committee.

Cohen instructed the committee that it was also empowered to suggest any internal changes within the Chest itself if it should consider such changes necessary to successful operation

Protecting An Asset

The Pocono Mountains region is blessed by nature with verdant hills and beautiful forests. For many years these attributes have attracted millions of visitors as well as a number of permanent residents. These gifts of nature are one of our most valuable assets.

Yet, each Spring and Fall, large areas of our beauty are destroyed by forest and brush fires, practically all of which are the result of carelessness. Each year we lose a little bit more of the total asset.

Despite the fact that we have had some rain in recent days, the danger of woods fires is critical. With the warm, dry winds of April, one carelessly dropped match, one unattended debris fire, or one thoughtlessly discarded cigarette could unleash one of the most destructive forces in the great outdoors—forest fire.

Under Spring conditions, before the woods have "greened up," one moment of carelessness can result in a woods fire that might destroy recreation, wildlife and watershed values, homes and resorts, and even human life.

Resident of our area should be particularly mindful of the danger at this time of the year, and preach the gospel of care with fire potentials to both those who live in our area and those who visit.

We have been endowed by nature with one of the most valuable assets possible. Let each of us be a crusader to protect it for the future. These three basic rules will help to accomplish this:

1. Never leave a debris or campfire unattended. Be sure every spark is out before you go away.
2. Use your car ashtray instead of the car window to dispose of cigarette butts and matches.
3. Thoroughly crush out all cigarettes or matches when in the woods.

Salvaging Our Heritage

History and money are not incompatible, as the continued growth of interest in the Gettysburg Battlefield has proved. With more than one million visitors attracted to the national shrine each year, commercial interest has kept pace.

Later this month, a brand-new wax museum will be opened at an estimated cost of $500,000. Now there's nothing wrong with a new museum in Gettysburg. But the half-million dollars is a nice, round figure that has particular significance in the public's concern for the Battlefield.

The drive to preserve more of the original Battlefield as part of the national shrine involves more than private fund-raising groups. It's also a matter for government—and that brings us to the half-million dollars.

From fiscal 1957 through fiscal 1962, just a little more than that was appropriated by Congress for acquisition of land—$524,440 for the five-year period. For this coming fiscal year alone the Interior Department asked that $573,000 be appropriated to buy an additional 205 acres of land. The National Park Service owned 2,804 acres as of last Dec. 15, with another 13 acres already under contract for purchase and enough money on hand to buy an additional 77 acres. But it is authorized to own 3,408.54 acres in all.

It doesn't look as if the Interior Department will get what it wants in funds for new land acquisition at Gettysburg and elsewhere. A House Committee recommended $116.3 million for the National Park Service last month. That was a sizeable increase over the current year's budget, but still $7 million short of what President Kennedy had asked. The House trimmed the overall budget even more before approving it and sending it to the Senate.

Now this doesn't mean that the government isn't spending money on Gettysburg. It cost $177,783 to operate the Battlefield this fiscal year and $46,000 more has been requested for next year. To that, add $1.9 million in new construction approved by Congress to provide more facilities for visitors.

But the hard-core issue at Gettysburg remains the Battlefield land which is still in private hands and subject to further commercial exploitation. It should be a source of national pride that this country has gone so far in maintaining the Battlefield as an historic shrine. It is a blow to that sense of pride, however, that we haven't gone all the way and obtained the rest of the acreage. It becomes more difficult and more costly to do with each passing year.

Discontent

THE sudden exuberance of movements is undoubtedly due to discontent and unhappiness, particularly among older folks and professional men and women. This discontent expresses itself in many ways and may easily become explosive, particularly should this country suffer from excessive unemployment and a lessening of income from small investments.

Much of the discontent is reflected by stimulated and accelerated movements which must be regarded as selfishly organized by pickpockets and money-grubbers. But that does not explain why so many fine and intelligent persons join some of the wildest movements, both Communist and Ultra-Rightist.

Only discontented persons can believe much of the inaccurate and untruthful literature scattered about as evidence of schemes and plots which do not exist. Using tactics long practiced by Communists, the Ultra-Rightists smear and defame even those who are most actively anti-Communist, in order that they may spread their own line more effectively.

The hearing of General Edwin Walker was a sad display of unprepared assertions. There is no question in my mind but that the general was jobbed. If he committed a military wrong, he should have been court-martialled, in which circumstance, he would have been protected by law.

At the Congressional hearing, he seemed not only unprepared but confused and his statements, as reported in the press, indicated that he made changes which he could not substantiate. It was an unfortunate performance by a man who had a noble career in the service of his country. It has done the conservative cause great harm because mere assertion without substantiation leads to ridicule and renunciation.

Regarding the Left, Attorney General Robert Kennedy said in Los Angeles:

"The greatest danger is not from the Communist Party, but from the espionage committed by representatives of the Communist-bloc countries here."

He also said that the American Communist Party has "no following and has been disregarded by the American people for many, many years."

Such statements are true and although they seem to contradict others made by J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI, who makes the correct point that in any analysis of the Communist situation, numbers do not count, he also holds that the greatest menace of the Party is its service as an espionage force for Soviet Russia. I find that these apparent differences of view are identical but each puts the emphasis on one phase of the problem.

Out of these statements, both Leftist and Ultra-Rightists have attempted to make a great issue and to give the impression that a fundamental quarrel exists between the Attorney General and the Director of the FBI. I can discover no such quarrel or any vast difference of opinion. Only those who are looking for a fight or who would like to see one, attempt to make five out of two plus two.

The law now requires the registration of the Communist Party and the indictment of its officers who fail to obey the law. Two have been brought to the courts. The preparation of a case, so that it will hold up in the courts under the rules of evidence, takes some doing and it does not matter what you or I or everybody knows to be true, under our system of law the case must be substantiated by permissible evidence. If one case is lost, a precedent is set for other cases. Therefore, the wheels of justice grind slowly. But they do grind.

The FBI, under J. Edgar Hoover, has achieved much in the exposure of Communists. If the Department of Justice prefers to hit at those engaged in espionage rather than those devoted to agitation, it probably finds it more facile to take cases into court that way. This does not represent a conflict of ideas or methods; it simply means that one agency investigates, the other prosecutes in a court. The same is true in the handling of dope cases. It took something like seven appeals before the Rosenbergs were punished; Alger Hiss had two trials and is probably seeking another.

This does not represent inefficiency. It means that as a nation we seek justice and give every man his best chance under the law. This is justice at its best. Unless we had such a system, the innocent, as well as the guilty, would suffer.

Anything can happen in this world and usually does. And The Daily Record Classified Department is no exception for the unusual, unique and surprise. The other morning the oddest request of the year was made. It went something like this: "You're going to think I'm goofy, but I don't know what day it is or what date—I've slept around the clock!"

This is what Sue Frantz, a Daily Record classified ad writer, heard when she picked up her desk phone yesterday morning. An unusual phone call, you're thinking! Not so in the classified department where hundreds of calls—concerning all sorts of ads and requests for information—are a routine day.

"Why, today is Wednesday, April 4, 1962," Mrs. Frantz helpfully told her anonymous caller. "And, by the way," she added hastily, "it's 9:40 in the morning!"

Off The Record

By Bob Clark

Bob Considine, our favorite columnist, came up with a dandy — we think — recently. It concerns Col. John Glenn's historic flight into space and the problems the same man would have faced because of a "hidden" rule about hiring men over 40 years of age.

We'll let Considine tell it in his own first class way: "A great many Americans, who are still turning cartwheels over the wondrous achievement of astronaut John Glenn, Jr., would not hire him if he came to their employment window, hat in hand and minus a rep."

"If he were plain J. H. Glenn, American, father of two teenagers, and he applied for a job in almost any average field of endeavor, the personnel manager would snap, 'Sorry Glenn we're looking for a younger man.'"

"But, sir," he might say, echoing the hurt protest heard every day in this country, "I don't consider myself beyond my prime. Why, I feel as good as did when I was 20. I'm sure I could handle that job if you give me a chance."

"Sorry, Glenn—it's a young man's world, you know." Sad, but true. Look at the Help Wanted ads. Or, if you're 40 or more, find out personally how tough it is to get a job commensurate with your experience.

"John Glenn's contribution to the American scene is enormous—big enough, we hope, to lap over into the periphery of geriatrics. He had to make decisions in space that could be brewed only in the well of experience, shaped in the forge of maturity."

"This is not to say that those same clear, panic-free resolutions could not have been made by a man young enough to be his son. It is only to say that he, John Glenn, who has lived beyond half of his life expectancy, made them. Countless thousands of Americans his age are deprived of opportunities to day simply because they are 'too old.'"

"The Colonel is one of the oldest American folk heroes ever to emerge, come to think of it."

The Allen-Scott Report

By Robert S. Allen and Paul Scott

Washington, April 10 — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt is going to make one of her rare appearances before Congress next week to speak out for the nation's 15 million hard-of-hearing.

The former First Lady will use the Senate Anti-Trust Subcommittee as a forum to urge the government to help the hard-of-hearing like herself obtain cheaper and better hearing aids.

Mrs. Roosevelt has accepted an invitation from Senator Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., chairman, to be the lead-off witness for his antitrust and price probe of the hearing aid industry. The hearings will open on April 18. The Senate's leading trust-buster ordered the public hearings after his subcommittee's preliminary investigation showed that four companies now make more than 85 percent of all the hearing aids sold in this country.

Probe Aims For Better Hearing Aids

Senator Kefauver found that the high cost — ranging from $120 to $700 — was one of the major reasons why only approximately 3 million of the 15 million persons afflicted with poor hearing wear these aids.

Other evidence gathered by Senator Kefauver reveals that little or no improvement has been made in hearing aids during the past five years, although original and upkeep costs have more than doubled during this period.

Major manufacturers are being asked by Senator Kefauver to supply the subcommittee with their cost and profit figures.

These will be studied to determine if they are out of line with other industries.

Advertisements claiming that their hearing aid salesmen make the highest salaries in industry have also attracted Senator Kefauver's attention, since several thousand persons have written the subcommittee stating that they cannot afford these aids.

GREAT DEMAND — It was this unprecedented flood of mail that caused Senator Kefauver to turn his subcommittee's spotlight on the hearing aid industry.

"More persons have written the subcommittee urging this investigation than any other probe, including our drug and crime exposés," Kefauver reports. "Altogether, subcommittee members have received several thousand letters urging them to see what can be done to reduce the prices and improve hearing aids. Many say the prices are more than they can afford."

Privately, Senator Kefauver is contending that the hearing aid investigation indirectly will be a boom for the industry, stating: "While it is my intention to prod the industry to cut prices and improve their hearing aids, the hearings should act as a stimulus for the hearing aid business."

"U. S. health officials tell me that sales of these aids should be double the 350,000 now sold yearly. The publicity should boost the sales if the industry will reduce the prices."

Note: In studying an Oregon law that requires licensing of hearing aid dealers in that state, the subcommittee discovered that over 25 percent of the dealers who took the exam failed to pass.

WAGE FLOOR CHECK — The Labor Department is launching a wide-ranging survey to find out how many employers don't pay the wages the law says they must.

Details of this nationwide survey, the first in five years, were outlined by Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg in a report to the House Appropriations Committee. It reveals that if the federal minimum wage law is widely violated, as some evidence now indicates, Secretary Goldberg will ask Congress for (1) more investigators to get the facts for law suits, and (2) stiffer penalties against violators.

The Fair Labor Standards Act requires operators of about one million factories, mills, mines and stores to pay their 27.6 million workers at least $1 an hour in some cases, and at least $1.15 in others. Ultimately, the minimum wage for all will rise to $1.25 an hour.

Employers may be sued for back wages. And, if found to be "willful violators," they may be fined up to $10,000 or, for a second offense, imprisoned.

According to the report, government investigators now check on only a small fraction every year because of the huge number of enterprises and workers covered.

However, under the survey, more than 100,000 firms will be checked in an attempt to learn the full extent of non-compliance, the nature of violations, and the types of establishments breaking the law. Such data was last gathered in 1957.

NEED SOME MONEY — U.S. businessmen may borrow from a government stock of foreign currencies, valued at almost $175 million, to finance business development abroad. Contact the Private Enterprise Division, Administration for International Development, Washington 25, D. C. ... Profile of the unemployed, as drawn by government experts, will be published soon. The Labor Department is readying the first part of its analysis of the rolls of unemployment insurance recipients.

... Off-the-record contacts with Federal Power Commissioners by parties in contested cases are now forbidden. Details of the new rule may be obtained from the Federal Power Commission.

Got Sanitation Problems? Answer Man At Sarah St.

EACH morning from 8:30 to 9:30, Monday through Friday, a man with answers to your sanitation problems is on duty at 621 Sarah St., Stroudsburg.

He is William F. Shoemaker, sanitarian for the Pennsylvania Department of Health in Monroe County.

In the room next to him is Mrs. Anne M. Shafer. Her job: Public health nurse for the department. She is in charge of a nursing staff which made 2,179 nursing visits in the county last year.

The Sarah Street address of the sanitarian and nurse is the site of the state Health Department's health center for Monroe County.

But back to the sanitarian.

"I'm on duty one hour each morning to help with all types of sanitation problems, ranging from community-wide problems such as water and sewage to the inspection of different types of establishments," Shoemaker said.

He explained the hour-a-day procedure gives Monroe County residents an opportunity to get advice on sanitation.

When 9:30 rolls around, Shoemaker begins his other duties: inspecting schools, eating establishments, refuse disposal sites, to name a few.

His working hours often extend into the night. That's the time when borough councils and township supervisors usually meet. His job often involves discussions with them.

The duties of Mrs. Shafer and her assistant, Gladys M. Merwin, are mostly educational. Their visits are designed to teach family members how to care for the bedridden or handicapped patient. In their nursing work, a variety of cases are seen, such as tuberculous patients, children with varied chronic diseases.

The county health center services are a part of the services carried directly to the people of Monroe County through the state Health Department's regional office at 919 Miners Bank Building, Wilkes-Barre.

Available to Monroe County from the regional office are qualified specialists who work in such fields as industrial hygiene, accident prevention, air pollution control, dental health, narcotics and alcoholism. The regional office also offers the services of a physical therapist and a medical social worker.

Monroe Coin Club Adopts Constitution

A new constitution and by-laws were adopted by the Monroe County Coin Club at a recent meeting.

Eligible age for membership was changed from 21 to 16 years of age. Female members are now allowed to join.

The next meeting will be held April 12, Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Monroe County YMCA.

A set of slides from the American Numismatic Association will be shown giving views of quarter, halves and dollars up to but not including the current issues.

'Ringmaster' Is Named

NEWFOUNDLAND — The "ringmaster" in charge of the 1962 Brownie circus, which is coming to town this spring, will be Mrs. Phyllis Jones, who is in charge of costuming and organizing the acts in the show.

The Brownies had such a fine time in their last year's circus presentation, that they decided to repeat the show, with new and better acts this season.

Connie Keiter and Margie Gearhart, girl scouts, will assist in preparing for the circus.

On April 16, the Brownies will have an Easter egg hunt, complete with a surprise Easter Bunny, and will present two skits. There will be refreshments.

New Combine

MOSCOW (AP) — Tass says Moscow engineers have designed a new combine that effectively harvests not only potatoes, but carrots, beets, onions and other crops.

Monroe County's Finest Citizens

Hope for the future lies in Monroe County's schools. The Daily Record is publishing pictures of our finest, the children in our schools. Every day a new room of school children will be published. Save the series and enjoy them many times in future years.

Bangor Corn Growers Win Recognition For Harvest

CARMEN A. Comunale and Carl and Robley Dutt, Bangor, have won special recognition as three of the best corn growers of this area.

Last year Comunale harvested 125.2 bushels of shelled corn per acre, and the Dutt brothers harvested 123.55 bushels per acre, the second and third best recorded by members of the 100-20 Club in southern New York, New Jersey and northeastern Pennsylvania.

They were presented plaques by Cooperative G. L. F. Exchange, sponsor of the club. Announcement of their awards was made by Stan Nepa, G. L. F. Service.

The club name indicates the goals of its members — to produce at least 100 bushels of grain corn or 20 tons of corn silage per acre. The 169 farmers who entered last year averaged 111 bushels and 27½ tons — double the state average for silage and 50 percent greater than the average grain yield in 1961.

Just Between Us —

—By Bobby Westbrook

With the May banquet season so close upon us, it was amusing to note that in Italy, for state occasions, they also serve chicken. But with a difference.

I don't know for occasions supposed to be festive and convivial we insist on broilers. They are the most effective way to stop all table conversation dead in its tracks as everyone struggles with bones.

The chicken in Pisa was petti di pollo alla Cardinale, which looked like a tiny chicken leg, complete with bone, but which actually was breast of chicken, boned and stuffed with herbs and topped with truffles, and a sauce so delicate I don't know what was in it.

I did ask what was in the appetitive — which tasted so much like medicine that I was sure it must be good for you. Vermouth, it was, but no gin — just an orange slice. The cocktail with hard liquor just never has made a mark in Italian circles.

The first course was costume, the second the inevitable pasta, this time in the form of "tortellini alla Panna", then the chicken and "patato al fioremore" (Robin says that means bite-sized); then "insalata alla Pargina" which was a green salad with a light dressing; then came cheese; then came fruit, nuts, dates, and big green beans that you shelled and ate the bean like peanuts; and then came the dessert: Dolce della Casa — the specialty of the house with a feathery meringue, filled with a mousse and topped with shaved chocolate — plus, of course, the wine and the espresso.

It was a tremendous meal but everything was so light you really didn't feel stuffed — and if there was garlic it was so light you couldn't detect it.

Italian eating habits are different than ours, too. They concentrate on one very large and very leisurely meal a day with only a hard roll and coffee for breakfast and fruit and cheese for the third meal and of course the siesta to digest it.

Moreover, you eat the minute you are served, and it's the height of bad manners to sit and let lovingly-prepared food get cold. Since I was served first each time, I had a little struggle with my conscience to take that first mouthful surrounded by empty plates — but after the first mouthful, nothing could stop me. It was delicious.

In fact all of our meals were, we couldn't get enough of their tender young artichokes, served raw with dip or French fried or stuffed and baked. The only thing we laughed at was stopping for a coffee break and getting two swallows of coffee in a doll-sized cup. But with Italian espresso, already sweetened with spoonful of sugar, there's enough energy to keep you going for hours, even in two swallows.

Music, Pictures Tell Story Of Easter At Womans Club

The Woman's Club of the Stroudsburgs approached the Easter season with a program of Easter songs and pictures of the Passion Play at Oberammergau at their meeting yesterday afternoon at the Stroud Community House.

Mrs. John McConnell, contralto, sang a group of four numbers "All in the April Evening" by Diack; "Christ Went up into the Hills"; Richard Hagemon; "Hast Thou Forsaken Me" Mana Zucca; and "The Palms" by Faure, and followed with an encore "If Christ Came Back". Mrs. Lucy F. Quig was accompanist.

Henry Frederic Rollman, Philadelphia banker, shared with the club pictures he had taken while traveling in the Bavaria which he described as the "Christ's creche" country. He described visits to two of the castles built by the "mad" King Ludwig II which bankrupted the country and caused his banishment.

The trip also showed a trip up the Bavarian Alps by cable car to 10,000 feet.

The Rollmans had visited Oberammergau twice, once in 1938, when they saw the Passion Play in preparation and again in 1960 when it was presented. Dating back to a vow made in the plague of 1633, the Passion Play has been repeated every 10 years, and involves 1,400 townsfolk all residents for 20 years or more as well as 250 children.

There is no exploitation he said, and praised the staging, lighting, performers and costumes, illustrating the dramatic scenes with his pictures.

The program was arranged by Miss Ruth Howlett, who also presented gifts to the participants and to Bobby Westbrook as a welcome home. A cross of palms was featured on the mantle and baskets of daffodils on the side mantle.

Mrs. Edward C. Hess presided at the business meeting when the sale of officers to be elected at the May meeting was given by Mrs. Foster Minich.

The meeting was preceded by a tea with a centerpiece of Spring flowers with flower-ornamented tea cakes. Mrs. E.H. Calkins Sr. and Mrs. T.F. Rhodes poured.

Mrs. Robert A. Rasely, Mrs. Nelson Beers and Mrs. Fred L. Scheller were hostess chairman; Mrs. Peter K. Emmons, Mrs. Nelson Frantz and Mrs. Ida M. Kuidie were in the receiving line and Mrs. Carl J. Denz and Mrs. Harold J. Pine Jr. served on the committee.

They will be introduced by Park Unangst, county chairman.

Every year, employees of Wyckoff's share Mr. Wyckoff's pride and delight in the dinner he hosts for his Fifty Year Customers. This past year, one hundred seventy-five men and women had accepted invitations. . . but two hundred attended, and I never saw so many well-dressed, bright-eyed, good looking, happy people in my life. Our Tea Room was crowded. Tables had also marched right down the stairs, and half way down the main aisle, in order to accommodate the overflow.

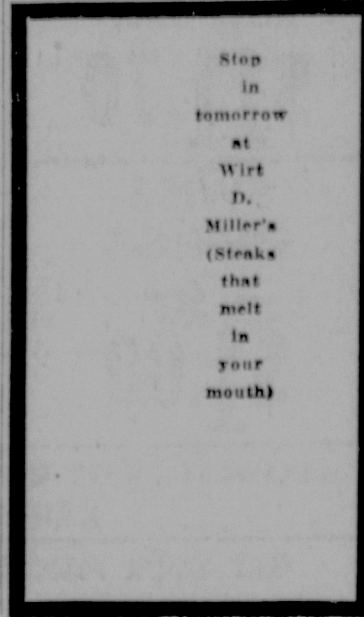

What is more, there wasn't a guest who wasn't proud of his or her age . . . the more years accumulated, the prouder each one was as "Papa" Wyckoff called for the oldest to rise and receive an orchid. I knew many of the guests, of course: Mrs. Joseph Kerr, who spends much of her time confined to her home because of a broken hip. She looked stately and elegant at the head of the big table in the center aisle, enthroned as it were in her wheel chair. Mrs. Ora Woodling, whose name I must have written thousands of times during my years as a newspaper reporter, because she was always busy in club work, particularly that of the Monroe County Garden Club. Mrs. Laura Thomas (one of our younger guests, I must add) who was one of my favorite teachers in fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. Mrs. Lou Metzgar Sayre whom I adored when I was her second grade pupil. And oh, so many more whom I couldn't possibly name off hand, although I do recall seeing Mrs. John H. Kunkle, whose husband was county superintendent of schools when I was a teen ager, and Mrs. Banks, the mother of both the well known nurse and of the late Vere Banks, who was my teacher in eighth grade.

The entire Wyckoff family was on hand to greet the guests—except for Pete, who was singing at the Hospital Fund kickoff dinner with the other members of Shawnee Choir. "Papa" Wyckoff presided . . . Holt, our President, pronounced the invocation . . . Ernie Michelfelder of our Music store served as pianist for the general singing, and Arthur Widmer of Advertising was song leader. I'll say this, however: from where I stood on the second floor, hearing the program through an amplifier, it did seem that "little Arthur" was singing solos, with an enthusiasm that put the rest of the crowd to shame. (Of course, he was nearer the mike than they!)

The party was the climax of a very busy day in the store, and the result of much effort on the part of dozens of Wyckoff employees. Throughout the day, the Tea Room had buzzed with anticipation as final arrangements were made, turkeys were roasted and other goodies prepared. Betty Bartholomew, Amy Eilenberger and Edna Bush fluttered around, arranging thousands of daffodils in dozens of pretty white pitchers. At 5:30 the waitresses slipped into fresh uniforms with colorful new chintz aprons, and a number of our 25-year employees manned the cloak room. Even Donna Sandt, Mr. Kerlin's secretary, was drafted into service . . . at the last moment I found one wedding gown for which there was no model, and she was literally forced into the role. One thing we now know, Donna will make an exceptionally beautiful bride.

And the men of the outside force had also done their part to make the affair a success. Jack LaBar, Emmett Fabel and several others had designed and made a perfectly splendid stage to extend out from the Tea Room steps, with steps at the side, so that our models in a segment of the Wedding Gown Revue of Barrett Elementary Center P.T.A. could properly display their finery which dated from 112 years ago. Only 15 of the gowns in the complete show (to be repeated May 3rd at State College) were shown, but one could see the pleasure in the eyes of long-ago brides as they watched. One gown worn was that of Lida Gearhart Gregory (wife of Dr. John) who was a guest at Mr. Wyckoff's party this year for the first time.

The gowns . . . the folk songs of Lisa Williams . . . and the good fellowship, all added up to a wonderful evening. We Wyckoff employees who were privileged to be a part of it, enjoyed it fully as much as did the Wyckoffs and their guests.

Dear Abby

Too Old For Games!

Dear Abby: My older sister, who is almost 18, and her boy friend, who is 18, are together in our living room sometimes. It embarrasses me. I wonder if you think it is all right. They have fun and he never really hurts her. I think they should not rattle like this. Am I being silly?

KID SISTER

Dear Sister: No, you are being sensible. They are almost old enough for wedlock—time to quit the hammer lock.

Dear Abby: Charles and I have been married eleven years. His parents live in the same city and my husband is their only child. Don't get me wrong, Abby, they are nice people and we get along fine. But about three or four nights a week, and all day Sunday, they visit us. Charles goes out in the garage and works on his car or else he goes down in the basement to his workshop, and I am left to listen to them and talk to them. When I complain (in a nice way) Charles tells me that after a hard day's work he likes to "relax." I'd like to relax, too. But how?

TRAPPED AND BORED

Dear T. and B.: Collar Charles when he is good and "relaxed," and tell him you are resigning as head of the entertainment committee. If he can't help you keep his parents company, he should at least take turns. (P.S. Don't you have a television set? It could solve your problems and EVERYBODY could relax.)

Dear Abby: I work adjacent to a marriage bureau and see the couples applying for marriage license. Sometimes it makes me sad to see the youngsters who are marrying. The boy hangs back shyly, and makes the girl do all the talking. They look so childish. I wanted to say, "Don't do it. Wait! You are only babies." Of course I don't dare. There are older couples in their middle twenties and early 30's. They know where they are going and what they are getting into. And when the older couples come in, we are delighted. They are so cute together, and we think, "Bravo for them. No more loneliness."

COURTHOUSE EMPLOYEE

Confidential To Ruth And Rebecca: If I knew how to "catch" a man in order to "Have A Lovely Wedding," I wouldn't sell the information for 50 cents.

Stop worrying. Let Abby help you with that problem. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Rallies On Back Nine To Overcome Player

Palmer Masters Champion

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Miracle worker Arnold Palmer came off the floor again Monday, rallied with a withering streak of birdies and won his third Masters Golf Championship in an unprecedented three-way playoff with Gary Player and Don Finsterwald.

Palmer shot a 4-under-par 68, Player 71 and Finsterwald 77. Down three shots to Player after the first nine holes, the powerful, unshakable young pro from Latrobe, Pa., knocked in birdies on five of the first seven holes of the incoming side in turning the contest into a virtual rout.

The finish was similar to that of Sunday when Palmer, his game on the verge of collapse, saved it with spectacular birdies on the 16th and 17th holes, bringing about a tie at 280.

Player, the usually impetuous little defending champion from Johannesburg, came off the final green, shaking his head in disbelief and declaring, "That man went crazy out there." The usually reserved Finsterwald seemed almost in a state of shock.

In addition the 1962 Masters to the crowns he won in 1958 and 1959.

JFK 'Tosses' Off Lid Of New Season

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

President Kennedy has thrown out the first ball at Washington's new $20 million D.C. Stadium and Cincinnati has held its traditional opener but the bulk of the major league baseball teams open the season Tuesday.

The 11-game program, spread over two days, is expected to attract a total of more than 340,000 fans if the weatherman is agreeable. The largest turnout is due at the new $18 million Dodger Stadium in Chavez Ravine where Los Angeles will meet the Cincinnati Reds Tuesday afternoon before 56,000 people.

With each major league now expanded to 10 clubs, the 20 openings days spread over a two-week period. Seven more will make their home bow Friday but the Los Angeles Angels won't be home until April 17 and the Milwaukee Braves play their first home game April 15.

The addition of the two new clubs, New York Mets and Houston Colts, to the expanded National League generates new interest in the older league which experienced a drop in attendance last season.

Although the New York Yankees are odds-on favorites to win another American League pennant, the league counts on another home run binger by the M&M boys, plus challenges from Harmon Killebrew, Jim Gentile, Rocky Colavito and Norm Cash to keep the turnstiles whirling. Detroit, Baltimore, Chicago and Cleveland all hope to press the Yankees.

Billy Hitchcock at Baltimore and Mel McGaha at Cleveland are the new managers in the American League with eight holdovers. In the National the "new" faces are Casey Stengel, returning from retirement at 71 to boss the Mets, and Harry Craft, formerly at Kansas City and now with Houston.

In addition to the new parks at Washington and Los Angeles, there will be a new temporary stadium in Houston to be used until the domed park is finished in 1964. The Mets, also awaiting the finish of their new park at Flushing Meadows in 1963 or 1964, will open in the historic Polo Grounds.

The big names of baseball will not waste any time getting a start on the new season. Milwaukee will have the veteran Warren Spahn shooting for victory No. 310 in the wind tunnel at Candlestick Park with Juan Marichal pitching for the San Francisco Giants.

Stan Musial, probably playing his last season at the age of 41, will be joined by the veteran Leaguer, Minnie Minoso, in the St. Louis outfield as the Cards open at home in a night game against the Mets. Larry Jackson, the Cards' top man, will play against Roger Craig, former Dodger who is Stengel's No. 1 pitcher.

Houston, like the Mets, will present a line-up of hand-me-downs from other clubs, in its first game with the Chicago Cubs. Bobby Shantz, the little lefty whose last stop was Pittsburgh, will pitch against the Cubs' Don Cardwell.

Johnny Porebs is the Dodgers probable in the big opener at Walter O'Malley's new park while Jim O'Toole of the Reds will join in a battle of left-handers.

The Phillies, who helped the Reds open Monday, will do the same for Pittsburgh Tuesday with Jim Owens scheduled to pitch against the Pirates' Bob Friend.

Whitey Ford, the Yankees' 25-game winner and World Series star, gets the honor of pitching the opener at Yankee Stadium against Baltimore's Billy Hoft in another meeting of southpaws.

Cleveland will send Dick Donovan, acquired from Washington, against the Red Sox at Boston's Fenway Park. Don Schwall, the 1961 rookie of the year in the American, will pitch for Boston.

The new look Chicago White Sox open at home against Los Angeles with Eli Gribb going for the Angels against Juan Pizarro of the Sox.

Kansas City has picked Ed Rakow, a spring training whiz, to pitch the home opener against Minnesota's Jack Kralick.

Baltimore, Minnesota, Cleveland and Detroit open at home Friday as will the Chicago Cubs, Mets, and Phillies in the National.

hillside around the 18th green, gave the champion a roaring cheer that he barely missed a 40-foot putt which would have given him a record tying 30 for the back nine.

Tough Stretch
The back stretch of Augusta National's 6,990-yard, par 72 test is rated the toughest by most golfers but Palmer plucked out its teeth. He played the back nine in 17 strokes under par for the tournament.

The victory, worth $20,000, sent Palmer to the head of professional golf's money winning list and gave him the first leg of the projected modern grand slam — including the U.S. and British Opens and the PGA—which he barely missed two years ago. He won the Masters and U.S. Open, missed the British by a stroke and led the first round of the PGA.

The 32-year-old product of a Western Pennsylvania coal area, who learned his golf at the elbow of his father, surged to the front on the 155-yard Golden Bell 12th.

There Arnold sent his tee shot flying to within 3½ feet of the pin. Player, visibly shaken, took three putts from the back edge for a bogey 4, and it was evident that the contest was over.

From Bad To Worse
Finsterwald bogeyed the first hole and on the second had his drive shatter against the cheek of a woman spectator, who was led from the course with blood gushing from the side of her face. This obviously upset the gaunt young professional from Athens, Ohio. He went from bad to worse.

After Palmer rolled in his long putt at the 10th, he turned to a friend and winked, saying, "The game is on." This for years has been the young professional's battle cry when he started his move.

"I knew Mr. Arnold was going after he got that putt," said Nathaniel (High Man) Avery, Palmer's caddy for the last eight years in the Masters. "He jerked at his glove, tugged at his trousers and started walking fast."

"When Mr. Arnold starts walking fast, you better watch out." The two losers had some consolation. Player picked up $12,000 for the second prize, Finsterwald $8,000 for third.

Area Schoolboy Baseball Season Will Open Today

AREA HIGH school baseball teams will swing into action this week with two big games on tap for Tuesday.

Stroud Union High and East Stroudsburg High both take to the highways tomorrow as they make their 1962 debuts.

Stroud Union, under coach Jerry Stulgaitis, heads for Weona Park. Pen Argyl for an exhibition game with the Green Hornets of John Laky.

The Cavaliers of East Stroudsburg play ten league games and two exhibition games this season. The Cavs non-league encounters are with Pleasant Valley (today) and Stroud Union on May 24.

Coach James Werkheiser, back for his third campaign, is going all out to improve on his 2-10 log of last term.

The starting array today will include: pitchers, Don Wescott or Clint Alden; catchers Mike Bou-shell or Jack Vinyard; first base, Jack Van Horn; second, Russ Scott, third Brian Farris or Ron Spinner and short, Bill Reese. The outfield will have Doug Hilliard, Ross Transue and Jim Steele or Farris.

The pitching and outfield defense are bright spots in Cavalier's squad with team hitting the big question mark.

Bears Play Eight
The Pleasant Valley Bears are directed by Art Smith. They will play eight games and face Stroud Union on Friday at Gordon Giffels Field.

Coach Jerry Stulgaitis is high on his club for the coming year. He said the club is in good shape and if the hurling holds up, Stroud Union will cause plenty of trouble for opponents.

Stulgaitis said today's meeting with Pen Argyl will settle many question marks that could not be solved during pre-season drills.

The probable lineup for Mountaineers will have 10m Morekan at 2b; Henry Ray, catching; Glen Bisbing at SS; Don Metzgar in left; Ed Nevil at 1B; Fred Frantz at 3B; Paul Albert center.

Warren Loney will start on the mound for the Stroudmen but Danny Hill and Dave Pierson will also be in the contest for some action.

The Cavaliers travel to West End for a diamond contest with Pleasant Valley.

The game will begin at 3:30 p.m.

Pen Argyl's starting lineup against Stroud Union today will be Roger Snyder, first base; Mike Maneto, second base; Dave Turtzo, shortstop; Bobby Engler, left field; Dale Young or Jeff Clewell, centerfield; Dale Young or Bruce Hewitt, rightfield; Fred Sauerwine, catcher and Dick Custard or Dave Uliana, pitcher.

Pen Argyl is the defending champion of the Lehigh-Northampton League.

Biggest Problem
Laky's biggest problem will be at shortstop where Val Caesar held the position for the past three years. In the early drills, sophomore Dave Turtzo had the edge over junior Charlie Gun and freshman Brent Jackson.

Several returning lettermen are on the Pen Argyl squad including two on the pitching staff. They are Dave Uliana, a 6-4 senior and Dick Kuster, a junior southpaw.

Bangor High School attempted an earlier start last week but rain postponed their scheduled opener with Easton High.

Pocono Mountains Joint Schools will open officially Friday afternoon as they play host to Hawley High School.

The contest will be played at Tannersville School field where all the Pocono home games will take place. Game time is 3:30 p.m.

John Bush will tutor the Cardinals and will be assisted by Wayne Boyd.

The Pocono boys have an 11-game list which includes such foes as Stroud Union, Pleasant Valley, Port Jervis, Honesdale, and Pius X.

However, the Cardinals have two other games tentatively listed for the coming season.

Arlan R. Neill returns for his second year as diamond coach for Delaware Valley Joint Schools when they open on Thursday, April 12. Delaware Valley opens against Otisville, N. Y., in an away game set to get underway at 3:30 p.m.

Five returning lettermen will spark the squad including Frank Marinaccio at first; Jim Pagano at center; Gary Williams, pitching; Bill Carroll at shortstop and Dick Berger as catcher.

Wayne Poes
Delaware Valley will open play in the Wayne County Baseball League (its first in the history of the school) on May 2 when they meet Wallenpaupack on home field at 2:30 p.m.

Delaware Valley is looking for a successful season and expects to be a real contender for the Wayne County loop championship.

Chess Club Entertains Visitors
STROUDSBURG Chess Club met recently at the Italian Mutual Benefit Association Club, Stroudsburg, with Capt. John Nolan and Jules Murero as visiting players from the Mount Pocono Area.

Capt. Nolan defeated Louis Mondelle two out of three games and Mondelle defeated Jack Conley.

In other games, Murero and Conley split two games and Earl Weiss defeated Murero. The final game of the night saw William P. Deering defeat Murero.

Crowe's Wins Pin Match
CROWE's of the Delaware Valley league lost the opening game and surged back to win the last two and total pins.

Okay Stuckey with 213-596 led the local club and George Pasch and Bert Zimmerman were top scorers for Pasch Refrigeration.

Crowe's return to their home alleys next week to be host to Sullivan's of Easton. As the season closes, the local leagues have been in real contention for to place with three or four other clubs.

Felled Heavyweight Boxer Is Showing Improvement

BLUEFIELD, W.Va. (AP) — Heavyweight boxer Tunney Hunsaker, after an early morning battle with rising blood pressure, held his own Monday night in his fight for life.

Dr. E. L. Gage said the fighter, injured Friday night in a bout at Beckley, W.Va., remained in critical condition with about a 50-50 chance for recovery.

"He has shown no perceptible change during the day," Dr. Gage said. Hunsaker still was in an oxygen tent.

Hunsaker has undergone two brain operations since Joe Sheldon of Cleveland battered him to the canvas. His injury is similar to that which took the life of former welterweight champion Benny (Kid) Paret last week.

Dr. Gage said Hunsaker was "still semi-comatose, has not spoken but has swallowed small amounts of water and broth."

Cars' Kist To Address Holy Name
JACK Kist, East Stroudsburg High School football coach, will be the guest speaker at the St. Matthew's Holy Name Society meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium of the church.

Kist will show movies of the 1961 inter-borough football games and deliver the narration.

In the business session of the society officers for 1962-63 will be elected.

Black Hawks Girding For Leafs' Series
TORONTO (AP) — The Chicago Black Hawks, defending Stanley Cup champions, are girding for what their coach, Rudy Pilous, predicts will be "a hard, fast-skating final playoff series" with the Toronto Maple Leafs.

The best-of-7 cup windup will open Tuesday night. After the second game Thursday, the series shifts to Chicago for games Sunday and the following Tuesday. Tentative dates for other games, if necessary, are April 19 in Toronto, April 22 in Chicago and April 24 in Toronto.

In the semifinals, Toronto, second place finisher in the regular National Hockey League season, defeated New York four games to two. The third-place Hawks, after dropping their first two games at Montreal, whipped the season champions four straight, clinaxed Sunday night by a deciding 4-0 shutout in Chicago Stadium.

Despite this incredible comeback, Toronto has been installed a slight favorite to remove the Stanley Cup from the Hawks' clutches. This, mainly, is based on the first two games of the series being on Maple Leaf ice, where Chicago won only one of seven games during the season.

Senators Top Bengals Before 44,383, President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bennie Daniels picked up where President Kennedy left off Monday and pitched Washington to a 4-1 victory over Detroit before the largest crowd ever to see a baseball game in the nation's capital.

A weekend of rains, dark clouds and a thunderstorm that delayed the game for 22 minutes didn't dim the enthusiasm of the 44,383 fans who jammed the new District of Columbia Stadium to see the start of the American League season.

Kennedy opened the show with a toss that slithered through the hands of a mob of ball players and fell to the ground, where it was pounced on eagerly by Senator relief pitcher Marty Kutny.

He dashed quickly to get the President's autograph on his trophy.

The President braved the shower and a foul ball that nearly beamed him to watch the entire game.

Daniels struck out seven and walked only two in winning on his first opening day appearance. He also made two errors and singled to drive in a run.

Bob Johnson led the 13-hit Senator attack with three hits, two singles and a two-run homer that put the Senators ahead in the fourth.

Wild Seventh
Washington added two more runs in a wild seventh inning. Chuck Cottier beat out a slow bouncer in front of the plate, then took second on a bad throw to first. He scored on Bob Schmidt's single to right field and Schmidt moved to second on a poor throw to the plate.

Daniels singled to drive in Schmidt, but was erased when Jim Piersall hit into a double play.

"The Tigers scored their run in the sixth inning when Jake Wood and Bill Bruton singled and Al Kaline hit into a force play.

Detroit threatened in the first inning when Wood singled and moved to second as Daniels threw wild trying to pick him off first. But the 29-year-old right-hander retired the next three men in order.

An error by Daniels and two walks loaded the bases for the Tigers in the seventh, but he got Wood on an easy fly to right to end the threat.

Norm Cash doubled to lead off the Tigers' ninth, but was stranded as Daniels bore down to retire the next three men, fanning pinch hitter Charlie Maxwell for the final out.

Left-hander Don Mossi started for Detroit and left for a pinch hitter in the seventh inning, trailing 2-1. In his six innings on the mound, Mossi gave up six hits, struck out five and walked one.

Texas School Makes History In 1st Meet

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Relays admitted the first all-Negro college this year and its team amply justified its selection.

Texas Southern, which became a national track power last year when it swept up the NAIA championship, blanketed the Texas Relays as no team ever did before—or any other relay meet in history.

The Tigers entered all five of the events in the college division and they not only won them all but set records in every one.

Never before has such a feat been approached.

The jewel of Texas Southern's performance was a 3:09.0 mile relay—the fastest in the nation this year. The Tigers also ran the spring medley in 3:21.5, the 2-mile in 7:30.6, the 440-yard in 40.5 and the 880-yard in 1:23.7.

All were great times in any company although Kansas, in winning the 2-mile in the university division, had a time of 7:27.7. This was almost three seconds faster than Texas Southern but the latter didn't have enough competition to push it to that mark.

The Tigers won their relays by from 15 to 60 yards.

Star Of Team

Star of the Texas Southern team is Ray Saddler, who in a single afternoon had quarter-miles of 46.0 and 46.3. He also ran a 1:53.3 half-mile. He was one of 11 men used by Texas Southern in hanging up the five victories.

In the great mile relay the Texas Southern times were: Melvin Houston 48.3, Wesley Blackburn 47.5, Saddler 46.3, Lester Milburn, 46.6. The best half-mile run for Texas Southern was a 1:50.9 turned in by Maurice Hobson.

The top individual runner of the relays, however, was Bill Dotson of Kansas. He led the Jayhawks to two relay victories, in which they set records, with a 4:03.9 mile and a 1:49.6 half-mile. But the real gem of the relays was an anchor lap Olympian Earl Young of Abilene Christian did on the mile relay. Young ripped off a 45.2 as Abilene Christian won in 3:10.0.

Kansas set a record of 7:27.7 in the 2-mile and 9:46.4 in the distance medley.

The Texas Relays had its greatest vaulting in 35 years as Fred Hansen of Rice set a record of 15 feet 6 1/4 inches and two other vaulters—Bayliss Bennett of Texas and Dexter Elkins of Southern Methodist—each hit 15 feet.

The other record in the university class was 17:01.8 turned in by Nebraska in winning the 4-mile relay. Nebraska made a very good showing all the way round, its 480-yard shuttle relay team tied the record of 58.9.

Proposes End To Boxing

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—Assemblyman Nelson F. Stamler proposed Monday an end to professional boxing in New Jersey.

Stamler introduced a resolution proposing a six-member Assembly committee make a study of prizefighting in the state. He said the committee could trade information with a New York legislative committee investigating the recent death of welterweight Benny (Kid) Parek.

"Aside from its savagery and brutality, it has been well established that underworld influence in boxing has been extensive," Stamler said. "Let New Jersey be the first state to abolish these vicious spectacles."

Colonial 4-Man League

THE last night of the season saw plenty of action and new records were made all around. "Corky" Keiper led the league for the first time with a 228-632. Colonial Lanes had a 910 for a four man team on games of 255 for Don Kinsley, 225 for Dick Andress, 222 for Frank Belli and 208 for Henry Baustein.

But the really big highlight for the season was Jack Bergman who has always been a real competitor and a fine gentleman on the bowling lanes making the 7-10 split. This is really an accomplishment which comes to so few and the entire league is really proud of Jack for this one and it couldn't have happened to a nicer person.

Next Sunday nite Peters' Texaco first half champions will battle with Bud's Mens Shop the 2nd half champions for seasons honors. In closing the season the entire league wishes to thank Peters' Texaco, Bud's Mens Shop, Leggieri's Pizzeria, Sealtest Ice Cream, Dick's Tavern, Schoch's Esso, Colonial Lanes, and McCormick Builders for the fine sponsorship and also the Daily Record newspaper for their fine cooperation.

Colonial Pocono Mts. League

SCORES throughout the league were on a much higher level this week and all matches were won by a 4 to 0 score.

Sinclair Oil rolled their first 2800 match of the season as they swamped Marshall's Creek Kennels. Dick Fabel turned in a 220-614 match to lead Sinclair to victory. F. Marsh with 513 was high for the Kennels.

Pocono Top Hat upset E. D. Huffmans as another of the top teams fell by the way side. Walt Arnold with 235-622 was top man for the Hat team and Ernie Martz with 205-578 paced the losers.

With Clair Pechatka's 565 trio leading the way Metzgar's Market won over Bush Well Drilling. Charles Allen with 507 was high for Bush's.

Pete Casella with a 227-618 total lead Rhineland Inn as they crushed the Nights. Grant Rarick's 556 was the best for the Nights.

Brite Cleaners rolled past Colonial Lanes with Al Kresge's 587 being the best score. For Colonial Lanes R. Shupp with 506 was high.

Gray Chevrolet overpowered league leading Monroe Music as they rolled their best match of the season. John Gerenser with a 244-673 match was high scorer for Grays. Dick Lessig paced Monroe Music with his 560 effort.

Pocono Major League

LAWSO'S Automotive Co. moved up to within one point of league leading Fabel's Dairy as they moved down Pocono Pump Co. 4 to 0. Carl Kohl with 214-611 was the leading scorer for Lawson's and Pete Tyreman with a 551 trio paced the Pump Co. team.

Swisher Dist. Co. defeated Fabel's Gulf 3 to 1 in a very close match. Les Katz and Sam Strunk both hit 561 for Swishers and Olav Stuckey turned in a 598 match to lead the Gulf team. This contest was featured by the conversion of the very difficult 7-10 split by Stanley Konawalk.

Stroudsburg Furnace Co. battling for second half honors rolled a 2800 match but could only gain 2 points from Happy Hour Tavern. Frank Laise with 248-602 paced the Furnace Co. and Russ Staples with 214-607 was high for the Tavern.

Fabel's Dairy held on to their first place lead as they turned back Baylor Motors 3 to 1. Dick Fabel's 560 trio was high for the Dairy and Dick Kymmer's 543 lead Baylors.

Control Season Champs

THURSDAY night at Colonial Lanes, Material Control, second half winners in the Patterson-Kelley League, took first half championship Test Floor into camp by 91 pins, to become 1961-62 league champions. Control was forced to come back from a 68-pin deficit, but responded with a 943 second game and built their lead through the third.

Hal Burkholder's 555 showed the way for the new champs, but he was solidly backed by fourother 500's.

Alonzo Stagg Scholarship Fund Set Up BY Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—Establishment of an Amos Alonzo Stagg scholarship fund was announced yesterday by the University of Chicago in honor of its first football coach and athletic director.

Stagg, who lives in Stockton, Calif., with his wife, Stella, is looking forward to his 100th birthday Aug. 16. He and Stella, a former Chicago coed who assisted him in coaching after their marriage, have been married since Sept. 10, 1894.

Stagg became athletic director and football coach of the newly-formed University of Chicago in 1892. He was the first athletic coach in the nation to be given academic rank, that of associate professor.

His term at Chicago lasted 41 years. He retired at age 70 on July 1, 1933, on a $3,000 pension. Stagg continued coaching, however, bringing College of the Pacific national football fame from 1933-1947.

He then retired again, but he moved to Susquehanna University in Pennsylvania to assist his son, Alonzo Jr., with football. They produced an unbeaten team in 1951.

In 1953, Stella's ill health forced Stagg to move to the West Coast, where he accepted a post as kicking and punting coach at Stockton Junior College.

Five years later he became the only man to be named to the Hall of Fame for both playing and coaching football.

He finally retired completely from football coaching in 1960 af-er 70 straight years in the profession.

Full-tuition

Proceeds from the Stagg Fund will go to finance a full-tuition, full-room-and-board scholarship for a male member of the University senior class. The recipient, determined by a faculty committee, will be judged on scholastic standing, leadership, character, and physical fitness.

The first major contribution to the fund recently was made by Lawrence A. Kimpton, former University chancellor. The campaign is being conducted by James M. Sheldon Jr., assistant to the president. His father, James M. Sheldon, played football at Chicago under Stagg.

KEEP PENNSYLVANIA "THE SAFE DRIVER STATE"

By Protecting Our Pedestrians

A pedestrian is no match for your two ton automobile. Frequently pedestrians, many of them children, are killed, injured or crippled, only because drivers are thoughtless or reckless. Your courtesy, consideration and caution can help prevent needless pedestrian deaths.

Remember that pedestrians have rights, too. Watch out for them, and treat them the way you'd like to be treated if you were walking.

If every motorist had observed this simple rule of courtesy during 1961, 1,220 accidents and 60 pedestrian deaths might have been prevented!

This carburetor operates with Atlantic Imperial Gasoline. Note that it is perfectly clean.

This carburetor operates with other premium gasolines. You can see the dirt deposits that have built up near the throttle plate.

WATCH FOR ONE OF THESE ATLANTIC TEST CARS

Each of the cars in Atlantic's Test Fleet is equipped with two glass carburetors and two fuel systems. One system runs on Atlantic Imperial Gasoline and the second runs on other leading premium gasolines.

When one of these cars comes to your neighborhood, you'll be able to see for yourself, through a special transparent hood, how dirt deposits have built up on the walls of the carburetor operating with the other gasoline, and you'll see that the carburetor running on Atlantic Imperial is perfectly clean.

Those deposits that can build up inside your carburetor near the throttle plate often can be the cause of frequent stalling, rough idling and actual gasoline waste. But, regardless of how long deposits have been building up in your carburetor, Atlantic Imperial, after just a few thousand miles of everyday driving, actually will wash them harmlessly away. And furthermore, as long as you use it, Atlantic Imperial will keep new deposits from forming.

Start using Atlantic Imperial in your car. It's the quality gasoline that cleans your carburetor as you drive... and keeps it clean!
